

2017—2018 Season

New Mexico Young Actors announce their 2017-2018 season!

Oz!

The Emperor's New Clothes

Disney's Aladdin, Jr.

From Hair to Eternity: The Un-be-weave-able Adventures of Rapunzel

Our 38th season includes adventures to Japan, Arabia, Medieval Europe, and . . . Oz!

In November of 2017 we will present the musical Oz!. The classic L. Frank Baum story comes to life in this charming musical by one of NMYA's favorite creative teams, Tim Kelly and Bill Francoeur. Join Dorothy and Toto as they try to find their way home from the magical land of Oz with the help of the Scarecrow, the Lion, and the Tin Woodsman.

At the KiMo Theatre, November 7—12.

Our fall 2017 play will be The Emperor's New Clothes by Judith B.Kase. Kase has set the popular Hans Christian Andersen fairy tale in Japanese Kabuki style. Enjoy the clever story of the two swindlers who convince the Emperor that his new set of "invisible" clothes are a perfect fit! On tour November 27—December 1, and at the North Fourth Theater December 2.

April of 2018 will feature Disney's Aladdin, Jr. Aladdin, "street rat" of Agrabah, needs to figure out how to get past Jafar and the Sultan in order to win the hand of Princess Jasmine. Yet, with the help of a special Genie and a magic carpet ride, he might just succeed. Come join us for a night in Arabia. Performance Dates: April 8—15 at the KiMo Theatre.

The last production of our 2017-2018 season will be a recent play by Tommy Jamerson, From Hair to Eternity: The Un-be-weave-able Adventures of Rapunzel. Based on another Hans Christian Andersen fairy tale, From Hair to Eternity will have you hankering for radishes, looking for your barber, and laughing the entire time. On tour April 30—May 4 and at the North Fourth Theater, May 5.

You won't want to miss these family friendly productions in 2017-2018. Check our website, www.nmyoungactors.org, for up to date information, ticket availability, and to register your son or daughter for our program.
