Tickets on sale for Oz! and The Emperor's New Clothes

Get your tickets now for our fall musical production of Oz! The classic L. Frank Baum story features Dorothy and her dog, Toto, trying to get back to Kansas. All the popular characters are there to lend a hand—the Scarecrow, Tin Man, Lion, and the Wizard. The show is directed by Paul Bower with a delightful score by Bill Francoeur. Also featuring a live band in the pit at the KiMo Theatre, Nov. 11 & 12, 2:00 pm, www.kimotickets.com.

Our fall play, The Emperor's New Clothes, is set in Japanese kabuki style, written by Judith Kase and directed by Paul Bower. Enjoy the popular tale of the two swindlers that convince the Emperor that his new set of clothes are a perfect fit, all the while teaching the pitfalls of vanity and the value of inner beauty. December 2, 6:00 and 7:30 pm at the North 4th Theater, www.holdmyticket.com

Oz!* Cast

It's just a little over a month now before we open at the KiMo! Remember to check the rehearsal schedule for your call times and locations and continue to invite teachers you know to book a field trip to see you!

Parents—we still need some volunteer positions filled. Contact NMYA to find out where you can help.

OFF-BOOK DATE: October 16.

October Fundraiser

Just in time for fall cleaning, NMYA will host a fundraiser in partnership with Goodwill Industries on Saturday, October 14, 9:00 am—1:00 pm at 7001 San Antonio Dr. NE. Drop off your clothing and household goods that morning and help us fill some bins and raise money!

Drama I

Our 25 Drama I students are starting scene work this month. Wednesday's class will present, Story Stew by Stacey Lane, and Friday's class will present, Storyville by Lorraine Thompson. Make plans now to attend these performances on December 12 & 15.
