Oz! at the KiMo, November 11 & 12

Our fall musical production of Oz! opens at the KiMo Theatre next week. Public performances are November 11 and 12 at 2:00 p.m. The famous story by L. Frank Baum features the effervescent Dorothy and her adorable puppy, Toto, as they find themselves wandering through the magical land of Oz in search of the elusive Wizard and a way back home to Kansas. All of the popular characters are on hand to help, including the Scarecrow, Tin Woodsman, and Cowardly Lion. Tickets available at www.kimotickets.com or by calling 768-3544.

And don't forget our fall play, The Emperor's New Clothes, at the North 4th Theater for two performances on December 2. Judith Kase has set the hilarious story in Japanese Kabuki style. You won't want to miss how the self-aggrandizing Emperor learns a valuable lesson in humility from two mysterious strangers. Tickets at www.holdmyticket.com.

November Fundraiser

On Nov. 13, NMYA will partner with Fuddrucker's Restaurant located in Coronado Mall (6600 Menaul) for our final fundraiser of the year. The fundraiser is good ALL DAY at the restaurant. Mention NMYA to the cashier at checkout and the restaurant will donate a portion of your ticket to NMYA!

Drama I

Our Drama I classes are busy preparing for their upcoming free public presentations. Wednesday's class will present Story Stew by Stacey Lane on Dec. 13 and Friday's class will present Storyville by Lorraine Thompson on Dec. 15. Make plans to see the future talent of NMYA in performance.
